FIGHTING IN COREA.

The Japanese Attack a Chinese Port.

NOT A SUCCESSFUL MOVE

After a Three-Day's Battle the Chinese Are Driven From Their Stronghold—Rumors Are Current That the Japanese Forces Have Suffered Reverses at Port Arthur.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A dispatch from Chee-Foo, dated the 7th, says it is reported the fighting occurred on the 4th, 5th and 6th, at Taienwan, but that it has not been decisive. A Tien-Tsin dispatch to The Times says that responsible Chinese officials appear to be callous as to the fate of the empire. They attend chiefly to their personal interests, such as contracts for furnishing arms, etc. The people are also indifferent.

In the vicinity of Moukden they suffer more from fear of the Chinese soldiery than fear of the enemy. The Russian officers on the station have been instructed to conciliate their British colleagues.

It May End the War.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—It is said that the powers have urged China to negotiate for peace directly with Japan and that they have secured Japan's promise to meet the overtures in a benevolent spirit.

COOK GANG HEARD FROM.

Lenapah, Indian Territory, Plundered by Two Bold Bandits.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Nov. 10.—Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lenapah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them. They entered the town in their character of bold bandits, without any attempt at concealment, and terrorized the citizens until they had carried out their plans of robbery.

Milton, a brave young man who attempted to stop them with his gun when they were riding away, was shot and instantly killed. Another man whose name can not be learned tonight, is reported to have been seriously wounded. Both of the victims were with a small force of citizens who hastily armed themselves and attempted to prevent the escape of the bandits. The robbers were mounted on fast horses and were heavily armed. Some of the citizens claim to have recognized them as Cherokee Bill and Jim French, well-known lieutenants of Bill Cook, the leader of the gang.

The robbers held up the proprietors of two stores and looted both places. They also robbed the postoffice. John Shufeldt, the proprietor of one store, was relieved of $100 in money and a gold watch. These articles were taken from his person. Mr. Shufeldt proclaimed his loss to the town before the robbers had finished their work, and the band of citizens were almost between them and their horses when the robbers were ready to mount.

An effort was made to stop them but they were on horseback with drawn pistols and were flying away before their would-be captors could make a concentrated move. Melton was more rash than the others and met death in consequence. The news as it reached this city does not state in what manner or how seriously the second victim was injured.

A report says the bandits are headed for Coffeyville, which is only 15 miles from Lenapah. This place is the scene of many tragic robberies and the police department with volunteers are prepared to meet them in the same way they met the Daltons two years ago, when almost the entire band was wiped out.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

A Number of People Injured, Some of Them Ladies.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 10.—While returning home last night from a protracted meeting at Trenton, a town 10 miles of this city, a party of 12 couples of young country people encountered a negro torchlight procession, led by a brass band. The horses of the country people became frightened and the negroes were ordered to stop the music until the buggies passed.

On their refusal to do so, the white men jumped from the buggies and rushed into the procession. A free-for-all fight ensued, in which several people were badly injured. Three ladies in the party were thrown from buggies and severely hurt. Thirteen negroes have already been arrested.

Kentucky—Third district, W. G. Hunter; Fourth, John W. Lewis; Fifth, Walter Evans; Ninth, Samuel J. Pugh; Tenth, N. Thomas Hopkins; Eleventh, David G. Colson.

Japanese Defeated.

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 10.—Rumors are current here to the effect that the Japanese forces have suffered a reverse at Port Arthur.

AT REST.

Admiral Gherardi Retired From the United States Navy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The commander of the New York navyyard, Admiral Bancroft Gherardi, one of the few old war commanders now in the naval service, and known in naval parlance as the sea-going admiral, was retired from the United States navy to-day at noon. He leaves behind him a career of distinction, full of hard fighting and severe service, and without a blemish. His total active service amounts to 48 years and 5 months, and 25 years and 8 months of that service were spent at sea. Even during the seven years he has held the rank of rear admiral, in a time when few admirals make more than one cruise under their own pennant, he has been at sea about four and a half years.

Admiral Gherardi was born in Louisiana, 62 years ago, and was appointed to the naval service from Massachusetts June 29, 1846, as a midshipman. He became a passed midshipman in 1853, a master in 1855, and was a lieutenant on the Lancaster attached to the Pacific squadron when the war broke out. The year 1862 saw him a lieutenant commander, blockading South Atlantic ports, notwithstanding his southern birth. From that time to the end of the war he was in the thickest of the fighting. He was in the engagement at Fort Macon, on the Mohican; commanded the Chocura on the west gulf blockade; the Port Royal on the same service, in the battle of Mobile and finally commanded the Pequot on the North Atlantic blockade at the close of hostilities. He was commissioned as commander in 1866 and captain in 1874, meanwhile seeing service in commands on the Pacific and North Atlantic.

One particularly gallant action of him is pursuing in a small lug and securing the destruction of a Confederate ram which had succeeded in running a blockade on the Mississippi. Admiral Gherardi became a commodore in 1884 and an admiral in 1887. Two years later he took command of the North Atlantic station. In 1892 he cruised from San Francisco around to Hampton Roads, bringing our Pacific fleet to take part in the great naval review in 1893, which was conducted under his command. This was his last sea service, for in May, 1893, he was placed in command at the New York navyyard, where he retires.

As a result of his retirement Admiral Greer, at present president of the light-house board, becomes senior admiral of the navy, Commodore Sicard becomes commandant at New York and the following promotions will follow: Commodore C. G. Carpenter to be admiral; Captain Rush R. Wallace to be commodore; Commander W. C. Wise to be captain; Lieutenant Commander A. M. Berry to be commander; Lieutenant W. H. Everett to be lieutenant commander; lieutenant, junior grade, J. E. Craven to be lieutenant, and Ensign John M. Elliott to be lieutenant, junior grade.

LITERALLY STRIPPED HIM.

An Italian Count Who Gambled With His Fellow Countrymen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—There were tears in the eyes of Raphael Demer, who is said to be an Italian count, as he told a curious tale of robbery to the New Rochelle police last night. He appeared as complainant against Giuseppe Boles and Conti Giuseppe. The prisoners keep a saloon on Mechanic street, which is much frequented by Italians.

Games of chance are played there. Demer went there and was induced to join in a card game. Before he knew what had happened they had made a clean sweep of his possessions. First he gambled away $50 in cash. Then his ticket went. Next they got his overcoat and finally in a fit of desperation he staked the suit of clothes he wore and lost. The men made him strip and clad only in a shirt he made his way to the police station and caused their arrest.

RECEIVER ASKED

For the International Nickel Mining Company by Allied Creditors.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A bill for receiver for the International Nickel Mining company was filed in the circuit court by the Colorado iron works on behalf of allied creditors. The complainant is a judgment creditor, holding claims of $4,629 and $3,211. The capital stock of the defendant corporation is $5,000,000, but it is claimed that the property owned by it never exceeded in value $100,000.

On the original subscription of stock $4,498,800 was taken by William H. Taylor of the brokerage firm of Gillette & Taylor of this city. The scheme was floated in 1890, it is claimed, by this firm, a nickel mining claim covering 200 acres having been purchased in Douglass county, Or., from Selah Reeve for $51,000.

Long Contested Case Decided.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—Appellate Judge Reinhardt yesterday in the suit of the Indianapolis Union Railway company against the treasurer of Marion county for the state, decided in favor of the state. The suit was to enjoin the collection of $192,000 taxes fixed by the state tax board. The company maintained that the board had no jurisdiction, and if it did, it acted fraudulently in making the assessment. The company will appeal to the supreme court. The case has been pending since 1892.

NEVADA CITY, Cal., Nov. 10.—Ernest Huhn, superintendent of the Eagle Bird mine, at Maybert, fell 600 feet down the shaft yesterday evening and was instantly killed. The body was horribly mangled. Huhn was a mining expert well known throughout the country.

DESTITUTE IN NEBRASKA.

Relief Must Be Immediate, as the Situation Is Grave.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 10.—The Nebraska relief commission, appointed by the governor to arrange for drought sufferers in western Nebraska counties, has organized. The main point to which the commission desires to direct attention is the systematic collection of relief at as early a moment as possible. The distribution is a light task comparatively, while the collection is a matter requiring untiring effort and earnest attention.

The secretary said he had proceeded on a plan of districting the state and then dividing the territory regardless of religious denominations. In his opinion every locality should be promptly divided among charitable workers who may proceed with expedition. He considered that the situation is a grave one, and that the amount of destitution in the western part of the state has not been in the least exaggerated.

DEAN HOLE LECTURES.

He Tries to Give Gotham Pointers on Impostors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Very Rev. S. Reynolds Hole, dean of Rochester cathedral, England, made his first appearance in this country as lecturer in Calvary Baptist church. Dean Hole wore knee breeches and black silk hose. His subject was "Impostors, Bores and Other Disagreeable People." As a lecturer he is more chatty than oratorical, and evidently made no special effort to achieve distinction for eloquence. The lecture, which lasted about an hour, was liberally interspersed with humorous anecdotes. He says he came here partly to see America and mainly to secure through his lectures, funds to assist in restoring Rochester cathedral. Among the chief "impostors" the lecturer included women who imitate men in dress and manner. He declared the religious impostor to be the worst of his class.

BISHOP MATZ RESIGNS.

The Outcome of His Quarrel With Father Malone.

DENVER, Nov. 10.—Bishop Matz of the diocese of Colorado has tendered his resignation, with a request that it be accepted as soon as possible. This information was given late Thursday night by the bishop's private secretary.

"In the absence of the vicar general I am authorized by the Right Rev. Bishop Matz to announce through the press to the Catholic clergy and laity of this diocese the fact that he has sent on his resignation of the see of Denver, with the request that it be accepted as soon as possible.

"The bishop considers it necessary to take this course in order to forestall inaccurate and misleading reports which may find their way into the press."

It is understood that this is the final outcome of the five years' quarrel between the bishop and Father Malone and others of the diocese.

Americans Arrested.

London, Nov. 10.—A dispatch to The Times from Yokohama says that two Americans who were arrested at Kobe on the French steamer Sydney, are torpedo experts, who had contracted with China to employ their own inventions to destroy the Japanese fleet. China promised them $1,000,000 for each warship they destroyed and a proportionate sum for each merchantman they succeeded in blowing up.

Storm on the Lake.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Nov. 10.—The worst storm of the season is blowing over this shore. The F. & P. M. steamer No. 2 is overdue here. A telegram was received that she would arrive yesterday afternoon. There has been nothing heard or seen of her since. No boat could enter this harbor with the sea that is rolling.

Earthquake in Michigan.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Nov. 10.—An earthquake shock was experienced here early this morning. Windows rattled and clocks stopped, and the houses shook perceptibly. The vibrations were distinctly noticeable for two or three seconds. They were accompanied by a deep rumbling like thunder. No damage resulted.

Express Agent Gone Wrong.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Frank E. Kent of Cincinnati, an Adams Express company manager, was held to the criminal court Friday, charged with robbing the company. Kent is well connected in Cincinnati and is said to have confessed to having taken about $700.

Ohio Monuments at Chickamauga.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—Captain J. C. McElroy, as treasurer of the Chickamauga commission, drew $14,370 from the state treasury to be paid to four firms for work already done in connection with placing Ohio monuments on the field.

Johnson Pays His Shortage.

STEEBENVILLE, O., Nov. 10.—W. R. Johnson, late defaulting city clerk, has paid his shortage, and proceedings against him in court for embezzling will be dropped. His case may be a test case, as he has beaten the prosecution in lower courts on technical points, holding that the statutes do not give councils power to make a clerk the treasurer. The case is in the supreme court.

Stark County's Treasurer.

MASSILLON, O., Nov. 10.—The special examination of the Stark county treasurer, just completed, reveals a deficit of $18,444 in the accounts of ex-Treasurer Mandru. Examiner Peckingpaugh reports: "I find that the funds were taken between June, 1893, and June, 1894, and the deficiencies temporarily covered up by false and duplicate entries upon the cash book."

TOP FLOOR CAVED IN.

Two Men Instantly Killed and a Number of Others Injured.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—At 3:30 yesterday afternoon the top floor of the new and magnificent offices of the city passenger railway, on the corner of Place d'Armes Hill and Craig street, caved in, killing two men instantly, injuring one fatally and maiming a dozen others. The audience of the Royal theater, which is situated almost opposite the scene of accident, was just coming out, and in a short time the street was blocked with a shouting and excited crowd. The accident was caused by frost, which made the heavy iron girders leave their socket, and which, crashing down, carried with them everything below. There were at the time about 50 workmen in the building, and many were miraculously saved from death.

The dead are: Joseph Marquis and Robert Panze, both French Canadians.

Pierre Monette, whose injuries will prove fatal, had his skull crushed and bones fractured in many places. While the men were working on the different floors of the building there suddenly came a deafening crash, when down came iron beams, planking, brick, mortar and lath in a heap. As soon as the terrible calamity dawned upon the people an alarm was sounded and the fire and patrol departments responded immediately with ambulances.

A ringing cheer went up when the firemen mounted the extension ladder and reached the sixth story. There, in a window sill, clinging with desperate energy, was Francis Houle, a bricklayer, who was about exhausted. He was rescued after some hard work.

Besides the dead and the man Monette, who is dying, the injuries of the others were such that they could be attended at their homes. They are all French-Canadians and it is difficult to ascertain their names. A thorough investigation will be held into the causes of the accident and no doubt criminal prosecution will follow.

ALTAR IN A JAIL.

Romantic Story Ended by Marriage in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 10.—Friday an altar was erected in Sheriff Ryan's private office at the county jail, and a prisoner indicted for embezzlement was married to a fair young girl from Houston, Tex. The prisoner is James N. Bray, the 24-year-old son of an English army officer of high rank. He came to this country several years ago, locating for a time in Texas.

Some time ago he came to Cleveland and fitted up luxurious bachelor apartments, purchasing an elegant piano on the installment plan. After paying a small amount on the instrument he sold it, and was arrested and indicted for embezzlement.

The romantic end of the story came to the surface shortly after, when Miss Jennie Duty of the Central Friendly inn and other Christian workers here received communications from Miss Grace Hugo of Houston. She said the arrest of Bray spoiled their marriage, but the event must occur, and unless the Cleveland ladies furnished the transportation she would walk to Cleveland. Last Friday she arrived in the city. She did not walk and it is presumed the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance union furnished her railroad fare. The wedding day was soon set. Miss Hugo is very handsome.

Tore Out His Tongue.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 10.—While crazed from the effects of a protracted spree Peter Pepper, a barber, an inmate of the city hospital, last night grasped his tongue in both hands and tore it partially from his mouth. An attendant discovered the suffering man, who was still tugging away at his tongue. All efforts of the hospital surgeon to save the man's life were unavailing, and he died shortly after an intense agony.

A Baseballist's Fate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Charley Sweeney, the ex-baseball player, who was America's foremost pitcher a few years ago, was yesterday sentenced to eight years' imprisonment in the state penitentiary. During a saloon brawl Sweeney shot and killed "Con" McManus. He was convicted of manslaughter.

Revolt in British India.

CALCUTTA, Nov. 10.—A revolt has broken out against Rajah Sihit El Ospueh, the ruler of the tributary state of Nyaghr in the province of Orissa. A company of infantry and a large force of police have been dispatched to the scene of the disturbance. Serious trouble is apprehended.

He Takes Howard's Place.

A Suicide Denied.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1894.

ARTHUR STEM is a well-known attorney of Cincinnati and he is soon to wed a daughter of Marat Halstead, the rabid Republican editor. Mr. Stem made a trip to Europe the past summer. His father-in-law to-be (or perhaps he had seen a Public Ledger) had made him believe that the foreigner pays the tariff on goods sent over here, and while in London Mr. Stem ordered his wedding clothes. In the outfit was a very handsome overcoat. After closing the bargain, some doubt must have arisen in Mr. Stem's mind as to who paid the duty. At any rate, being unable to bring all the goods himself he induced a friend who remained behind a few weeks longer to bring the coat over and palm it off on the customs officers as his own. The scheme worked smoothly until the friend reached Cincinnati, but before he could turn the coat over to Mr. Stem, Uncle Sam's officers got a hint and now part of Mr. S.'s wedding outfit is in their hands. They have notified Mr. S. if he wants his overcoat he must step up to the desk and pay the tariff on it. Mr. Halstead's son-in-law to-be is probably convinced by this time that "the tariff is a tax."

Sugar Two Cents.

Cincinnati Tribune: "Sugar is again to the front in point of interest. The spirit which prompted the wholesale grocers to indulge in rate cutting seems to have involved the retailers, or rather a few of them, in the meshes of active competition. The present movement seems to be focused on McMillan street, Walnut Hills, where it is reported that the Great China Tea Company is selling sugar at retail at two cents per pound. Wholesale dealers on 'Change referring to the matter said that there are other dealers engaged in the war, if war it be, and that the reduction to three cents per pound a day or two since has been quickly followed by a drop to two cents per pound, and this while the wholesale price is strengthening. The Peebles Company is said to have been drawn into the movement, and is now selling in competition with the Great China Tea Company, on Walnut Hills, at two cents per pound to the extent of five pounds to each purchaser."

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. James Wood.

THE POLITICAL CYCLONE.

Comments of the Press on the Late Election and the Result—Democracy's Future.

Portsmouth (O.) Times: "The lesson of Tuesday's election in New York will no doubt bear fruit in all the large and small cities of the country. It shows the will of the people is stronger than any party organization. New York was no more corrupt in proportion to its size than is even Portsmouth. There is not a large city in the State of Ohio but will, no doubt, duplicate, in a degree at least, the blackmailing schemes of the police of New York."

Boston Post: "The election does not mean a return to McKinleyism."

Owensboro (Ky.) Inquirer: "We are still doing business at the same old stand, firm in our Democratic faith and hopeful of the future. The Democratic party is not dead by a long shot. The star-eyed Goddess and tariff reform still live. We have right on our side, and right will become might before 1896 rolls around. Let us stand by our colors and present an unbroken front to the enemy. It may take a few weeks to gather in the stragglers and patch up the rooster, but we'll do the gathering and patching in due season, and be ready for the next battle with hopeful hearts and helpful hands."

Detroit Free Press: "Ohio's immense Republican majority is largely accounted for by the fact that McKinley did most of his campaigning outside of that State."

Louisville Courier Journal: "The industrial panic was succeeded by a political panic, and panics of all sorts are unreasoning. They can only be met and turned by quick, resolute action, and this quick, resolute action was wholly lacking at Washington and everywhere else. The President set the pace of disaffection. It was eagerly taken up by the rank and file. Faction once in the saddle, rode booted and spurred down the Democratic column, toppling over in its mad career the just and the unjust, the meritorious and the recalcitrant. The slaughter has been indiscriminate. The grave is hardly wide enough to hold the slain."

New York World: "The Democrats did it! It is not a Republican victory. It is a defeat for bossism and peanut politics at home, in Washington and throughout the country."

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette (Rep.): "Democrats cut loose from party prejudices and voted with the Republicans for their own interests. It would be folly to assume that there is a normal Republican plurality of over 20,000 in Hamilton County, or that there is a normal Republican plurality of 125,000 in the State of Ohio. These remarks apply with equal force to other States, notably New York, Indiana and Illinois. Much credit, therefore, is due to Democrats who rose above party ties and party prejudices, and helped to swell the cyclone that swept the country."

Cincinnati Enquirer: "When the Democratic party next goes into battle the tariff law will have been tried and business and affairs will be adapted to it. The false scare about the responsibility for hard times will be over. The Republicans will not have been able to show that they can manage the tariff or any other question better than the Democrats have. And while the Democratic army will have a dead weight to carry for while, it will not have been a lagard in the saddle. * * * In addition to the almost fatal tradition that the party which revises the tariff must be defeated at the next election following, and besides the blind theory that the responsibility for hard times must always be borne by the party in power, the Democratic party has suffered from treachery, self-sufficiency and vacillation in a quarter where it had the best right to demand wisdom and loyalty."

St. Louis Republican: "Well, anyway, it's better to have the landslide now than in a Presidential year."

New York World: "The Democratic party of the future will be a far better party because of the action of the Democrats who, in behalf of party principles, arrayed themselves yesterday against party bosses who had betrayed or abandoned principles. Every Democrat can feel gratified that, regardless of temporary considerations of party, the people, animated by the Democratic instinct, have shown themselves the governing power in the country; that they have made it once more apparent how much greater they are than any great man or any number of great men, than any autocrat, any Senate, any machine. The people are in power and they have shown it. That is what it means."

FREE COINAGE OF SILVER.

The free and unlimited coinage of silver, the product of American mines, at the old ratio of 16 of silver to 1 of gold, is the only solution of and remedy for the disturbed and unsatisfactory condition of trade, manufacture and general business of the country. The surreptitious act of 1873, divorcing silver and gold in our monetary system, was a crime of untold magnitude. It was the rankest kind of class legislation in favor of the wealthy against the producers of wealth, and hostile to the prosperity of the United States. It was an act of treason because done at the instance of a European syndicate and for bribe money, "giving aid and comfort to our country's enemies." To shield the guilty parties, the well authenticated facts, often published, have been vigorously denied.

The Enquirer will continue to expose this unpardonable crime until right and justice are done the people by the full restoration of silver to its old companionship with gold. We need the assistance of the people in disseminating the truth, to which end we invite all in your selection of papers for the coming season to include the Enquirer, that costs only $1.00 a year. ## THE OFFICIAL FIGURES.

But Slight Corrections Made in the Returns Heretofore Published—The Ballots in Dispute Not Counted—They Would Not Have Changed the Result.

The official canvass of the returns of this week's election was completed this morning by Deputy Sheriff Perrine and Squires Grant and Miller, who constituted the Returning Board.

The count shows but few errors in the figures heretofore published, and these errors make but slight changes in the totals.

The decision as to the ballots in dispute was that the Board had no right to count them. An inspection of these ballots showed that, if counted, they would not have changed the result. If anything, they would have increased the majority of the Republican nominees who were elected on the face of the returns.

Following are the official figures:

THE NEXT SENATE.

Facts Relating to the Next Body of That Assembly.

THE SENATORS FROM UTAH.

They Will Be an Important Factor—New Mexico and Arizona May Be of Some Importance if Admitted to the Union—Latest Election Returns From the Doubtful Districts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A point that has been overlooked in computing the political complexion of the next senate is the admission of Utah with two United States senators. The act of the last session of congress admitting Utah provides that in March, 1895, the constitutional convention shall be held. On the first Tuesday after the first Monday of that year the constitution is to be submitted to the people, and if ratified and found by the president to be in accordance with the act, he will issue a proclamation admitting it as a state. The act also provides that a representative to the Fifty-fourth congress shall be elected at the same time, the vote is taken upon the constitution; also that state officers and a legislature shall be chosen and that if the constitution is ratified the legislature shall immediately meet and elect two United States senators.

As there is about a month from the time the election is held until the Fifty-fourth congress meets there will be ample time to have all the formalities complied with, and Utah proclaimed a state in time for its senators and representatives to participate in the organization of the next congress. This would make in all 90 senators, and as the next senate now stands, the politics of the Utah senators would cut an important figure. Another probability which arises is the admission of both New Mexico and Arizona, which may be accomplished in time so that four more senators would participate in the organization of the next senate. Bills have already passed the house for the admission of both these territories. The senate committee on territories have reported them favorably to the senate and they are now on the calendar. Senators of both parties have been urging their passage, and it is more than likely that neither party would oppose them because of the effect it would have upon the elections as the people are anxious for admission and would resent opposition by any party to that end. It is, therefore, quite likely that the battle for the control of the senate will yet be fought out in Utah, New Mexico and Arizona next year. The admission of these new state would make a total of 94 senators and any party to control would need 48 for a majority. With the vice president the Democrats could control the senate with 47 senators.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The election of Budd, Democrat, candidate for governor, is not so certain as it first seemed. His lead over Este, Republican, has been steadily decreasing as the returns come in, and he is now only 1,094 ahead of the Republican candidate. There are still 323 precincts to hear from, and if Este's gain continues in the same ratio as they have during the day he may yet beat Budd. The Republican state committee claims Este's election by several hundred plurality.

Owens' Election Will Be Contested.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10.—The official count gives W. C. Owens, Democrat, 101 plurality over George Denny, Republican, in the Ashland district. Judge Denny alleges that hundreds of Republicans were denied the right to register in Lexington, and that frauds were committed at the election in the interest of his opponent and says he will carry the contest to the house of representatives.

Texas.

AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—Returns from the state show large Populist gains, but Culberson, Democrat, for governor, will have a plurality of 40,000. In the Twelfth congressional district, Noonan, Republican, is elected by 500 majority. The result in the Thirteenth district is close between Cockrell, Democrat, and Gilliland, Populist, with the chances favoring Cockrell. Eleven districts are Democratic.

Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Complete returns from 76 in a total of 161 precincts in the state of Nevada give Cleveland, Republican, for governor, 2,525; Jones, Silver, 3,448; Winters, Democrat, 330; Peckham, Populist, 552.

EXPERIMENT STATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The work of agricultural experiment stations in this country will be thoroughly reviewed and plans discussed at the forthcoming eighth annual convention of the Association of American Colleges and Experiment Stations. The meeting will begin in this city next Tuesday and close Friday and a large gathering of agricultural experts is expected.

Mineral sessions will be held daily. Addresses will be made by Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Dabney, Commissioner of Education Harris and by various experts in agricultural matters. Reports will be received from committees and section chairmen, and all sections will meet for organization and preliminary business. General Stephen D. Lee, president of the Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical college and president of the association, will deliver his annual address in the evening.

Michael Kelly's Burial.

Cardinal Gibbons on Suffrage.

Cardinal Gibbons, in a recent sermon at the Baltimore cathedral, said on the question of woman suffrage:

The church follows the teachings of St. Paul, that woman is equal to man, when he declares that God makes no distinction as to nationality, race or sex. It seems to me fearful to contemplate what would have been the condition of society today if it had not been for the restraining, sanctifying and purifying influence of woman. Woman does not today exercise the right of suffrage. She cannot vote, and I am heartily glad of it. I hope the day will never come when she can vote, and if the right is granted her I hope she will regret it, even though there are some misguided women who think they want it. Rest assured, if woman entered politics, she would be sure to carry away with her some of the mud and dirt of the political contact. She, too, would lose some of the influence which she now exerts.

Extension of Cotton Manufacturing.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—Special reports to The Manufacturers' Record show a steadily increasing interest in the extension of cotton manufacturing in the south. Final contracts have been let for the construction of a mill in South Carolina to cost about $500,000, which will require over 3,000,000 feet of lumber. It will be one of the most complete cotton mills in the country. An Atlanta mill will double its capacity at a cost of about $300,000, while a number of other mill enterprises are being organized.

Report Delayed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The statistician of the United States department of agriculture states that owing to the comparatively small number of returns as yet received, in answer to the special circular in regard to the feeding of wheat to stock, the department will not make a statement as to the same on the 10th nor until more extensive returns are received.

British Cruiser Missing.

"LOVE AND LIFE."

The Famous Painting That May Not Hang in the Executive Mansion.

To be hung or not to be hung is the question just at present in Washington.

Those in favor of hanging say that the allegorical painting "Love and Life" presented to the American people by the distinguished English artist, George Frederick Watts, R. A., ought to grace the walls of the executive mansion in Washington. Those who oppose the hanging claim that "Love and Life" is immoral; that representations of what Trilby called "the altogether" ought never to be seen anywhere, but least of all in the District of Columbia, and seem to think that the proposition to hang the painting in the east room of the White House is nothing less than a deep laid scheme to entrap the government into a quasi official approval of indecent art.

So that the great painter's generous gift has stirred up a greater commotion, if that were possible, than the famous controversy which arose about the figures on the St. Gaudens medal.

It is at the door of Colonel John M. Wilson, superintendent of public buildings, that the responsibility is said to lie. No one supposes for an instant that Watts presented the painting to America for it to be carefully boxed up and stowed away in an inaccessible room in the White House. It is hardly likely that the subject of "Love and Life" was altogether unknown to the members of congress, who, last session, accepted the gift in the name of the American people. The painting was exhibited here for several months nine years ago in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. It was among the pictures placed on exhibition last year at the World's fair, and it has been reproduced often enough to warrant the assumption that we are a very immoral people if the influence of the picture is as corrupting as is said.

In addition, the people of the United States, through Secretary Gresham, pledged their word after congress had accepted the gift that it would be hung in the White House, a letter to that effect being written to the artist.

But the picture, according to Colonel Wilson, is not a fit one to be exhibited in the executive mansion. He simply ignored the claims of Mr. Watts to be regarded as one of the first among living painters and stated that until the president gave instructions to that effect he could not think of allowing such a work to be exposed to public view in the rooms of the White House, even though the work in question were intended to form the nucleus of a future national art gallery and would consequently only remain there until more fitting quarters could be secured for it.

The painting which has brought about this discussion is one of the most important works from the brush of the British artist and is a companion picture to his "Love and Death." It represents the figures of a winged youth and a maiden climbing a steep and precipitous ascent. Both figures are nude; but, it is an absurdity to say it, there is not the slightest suggestion of indecency about them. Love, exemplified by the youth, stoops, tenderly helping his companion upon their toilsome journey. His half extended wings protect her slight form from the sun's fierce rays. The picture is an illustration of the truth that love raises life; that an ideal existence is possible only with the protecting care of love. In the picture, where love's feet have trod, flowers spring on the hard, rocky ground, and as the figures ascend the atmosphere becomes more and more resplendent and pure.

the worst and most serious is Dengue or break-bone fever. Called "break-bone" because one's bones are not only racked with pain, but feel as if they were tightly held, as by a vice.

At times one feels that the pain is almost unbearable, and many are brought to Death's door by the terrible prostration which follows this grievous complaint.
